Air Receiver at the Water Works Plant Gave Away.

Windows Demolished and Mill Wall Well Peppered by Force.

NO ONE WAS HURT

A big compressed air receiver at the Paducah Water company's plant on First street between Kentucky and Washington streets gave way about 8 o'clock this morning with terrific force, but fortunately no one was injured. The huge reservoir, which is about 20 feet or more long and a foot in diameter, was used to receive the compressed air with which the big hammers were worked in riveting the new reservoir. It was on the south side of the company's pumping station, near the wall, and a short distance back from the sidewalk.

About 8 o'clock those in the vicinity, and in fact in many other parts of town, were startled by a loud explosion which shook everything in the locality. Windows rattled and broke and scores of people began to run towards the plant to find out what caused the detonation.

The compressed air apparatus was pretty well wrecked. The big receiver had one end blown off, the casting striking near a top window in the three rivers mill across the street, breaking the glass and leaving a heavy imprint on the bricks.

A galvanized iron gutter on the side of the water works plant was blown off with such force that it struck the brick mill on the opposite side of the street endwise and mashed about 8 inches of the gutter up like an accordion.

Snow from the ground was blown with such force against the mill that large splashes were visible all over the front. No one happened to be in front of the receiver when it gave way, hence no one was injured. Captain Crider, of the Dick Fowler, was not many feet away, and some of the water company's men, including Chief Engineer Holmes, had been directly in front of it a short time before taking measurements. It is said that there was a pressure of eighty pounds of air on when the receiver burst.

Mr. Holmes stated that the damage would be slight. Several of the windows of the pumping station on that side were demolished, as were the windows in Mr. Holmes' residence next door, while many of those in the windows of the mill across the street were also broken. Some of the window panes were loosened by the concussion and came out whole.

The cause was either that the safety valve on the receiver froze or for some other reason refused to work, or that there was some defect in the casting that was blown off, and it failed to stand the pressure. The valve is believed to have been all right, as Mr. Holmes heard it working about 15 minutes before.

The compressed air apparatus is disabled for a day or two, but will soon be repaired. The total damage will probably not amount to more than $160 or $175.

AN EGG FAMINE.

SUPPLY IN HANDS OF CHICAGO DEALERS WILL NOT MEET THE DEMANDS.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Unless the cold spell in Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and other great egg-producing States loosens its grip an egg famine is probable. The present supply in the hands of Chicago merchants is entirely insufficient to meet demands. Receipts have been reduced to the vanishing point. The effect has been to place eggs temporarily among the luxuries.

Eggs of the quality which could be purchased last week at wholesale for 28 cents now are considered a bargain at 38 cents.

A Temporary Appointment for Pension Agent.

Uncertain Who Will Get it—A. P. Thompson is now Acting.

NEWS OVER THE WIRE

Washington, D. C. Jan. 28.—Dr. Hunter will see the president today in the interest of Judge T. Z. Morrow and will urge his appointment as pension agent. As the matter stands Judge Morrow is a formidable applicant, and if Yerkes indorses him his appointment would follow quickly.

George C. Long of Hopkinsville, and George H. Goodman, of Paducah, are at Riggs.

TEMPORARY APPOINTMENT.

Louisville, Jan. 28.—A. P. Thompson has been temporarily appointed to fill the office of pension agent of Kentucky, made vacant by the death of General Dan Collier. He received the appointment from Roosevelt today. Mr. Thompson is chief of the finance division of pension bureau with headquarters at Washington.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 28.—Herbert S. Robertson, accused of embezzling $10,000 from a New York publishing house, was arrested by Detective Sergt. of New York at a swell hotel here on extradition papers of Texas' governor.

LOUISVILLIAN ILL.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 28.—Presley Meguire, president of the board of church extension of M. E. church south, also president of Ninth street tobacco warehouse company, is dangerously ill at the Willard hotel.

MURDER TRIAL.

Cincinnati, Jan. 28.—The trial of Mrs. Anna Oppenheimer, of Russellville, Ky., charged with killing her baby, began today.

SUSPECT RELEASED.

HE WAS IN ELECTION FIGHT AT MEMPHIS.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 28.—On receipt of a telegram from the chief of police of Memphis today that Harry Behr could not have been at Bedford, Ind., at the time Miss Schafer was murdered, Judge McCann today dismissed Behr from custody.

Behr was arrested yesterday while drunk from opium smoking and after he had said he had committed murder.

For that reason he was carried to Central police station as a suspect.

The fact that blood spots were on the underclothing of Behr was the additional cause for his detention. Behr says he had nothing whatever to do with the murder of Miss Schafer. Behr accounts for himself in a satisfactory, but not creditable manner.

He was one of the participants in the disgraceful election day fights in Memphis on January 7, and was there wounded, accounting for the blood spots. Careless as to his personal cleanliness, he had not changed his underwear since.

MORE VICTIMS.

SIXTEEN GERMANS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN KILLED AND SEVENTY MORE MISSING.

Berlin, Jan. 28.—Special intelligence from Swakopmund, in Southwest Africa, says Okahandja reports that sixteen persons have been murdered in that district, and that seventy people are missing.

Miss Mamie Tate Chapman, of Morganfield, Ky., who has been the guest of Mrs. Clarence M. Martin of Jefferson street, left this morning for Hot Springs, Ark.

THREE DAYS LEFT FOR JAN. SUBSCRIPTIONS

After February First Advance Subscriptions Depreciate in Value.

There remain only three days for subscribers who wish to subscribe to The Sun and vote in its world's fair contests to send in their subscriptions. According to the rules of the contest subscriptions sent in this month entitle the subscriber to four times as many votes as the same subscription will in the last month of the contest—one-fourth more than in February. That the contestants and their friends appreciate this fact is attested by the big number of advance subscriptions sent in this month. The three remaining days no doubt will see many more and it behooves the friends of the entries in the different contests to get in their best efforts this month as it is the one that counts.

If you are interested in any of the contests send in your subscription before January is out and make it count all you can.

Watch the contests for some spirited voting the next few days.

STILL PROTEST

Christian County Negroes Say They are Innocent.

Holland Sticks to His Story but the Others Say if He Murdered Any one They Don't Know it.

THEY ALLEGE PREJUDICE

The seven negroes brought here yesterday from Hopkinsville for safe keeping on a charge of murdering an unknown white man, claim they are all innocent except George Holland, who was first arrested and "peached" on the others.

The negroes were seen this morning by a Sun reporter and stated that Holland had simply stated to the police that they were with him when he cut the unknown white man's throat, but did not state that they took any active part in the murder. They claim if any murder was committed by Holland he did it alone, and not with their knowledge or help.

They further stated that the officers had a grudge against them and were more than willing to implicate them, going so far as to call their names and ask Holland if he did not remember of seeing them there, to which he agreed.

There were nine negroes arrested for the murder, seven being brought here and two taken to Madisonville. There are four convicts already, and sentenced to hang, three of the convicted prisoners being brought here.

The jail at Hopkinsville is crowded and the officers feared mob violence, a colored mob having strung a negro up near Guthrie Sunday night. This caused the officers to fear mob violence at Hopkinsville and they hustled the negroes off to Madisonville and this city.

The name of the white man killed has never been learned, and probably never will be. The prisoners claim that even when they proved alibis the word of the self-confessed murderer Holland was taken in preference to all the testimony they had.

COLLIDED IN FOG.

MORE THAN TWENTY PERSONS BADLY INJURED IN ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Jan. 28.—More than 20 persons were injured some of them fatally, when two cars on the Broadway line collided today. Most of the seriously injured were taken to the Alexian Brothers' Hospital, while the others were sent home.

The seriously injured: John Bartrington, probably fatal; Walter Sievertritt, internal injuries; J. H. Hobelmann, internal; Wm. Miller, badly bruised about body; Thomas McGovern, both ankles broken; Frank Alter, upper lip cut off; Christopher Jurgin, motorman of the front car, injured internally, perhaps fatally.

MANGLED BODIES

Are Being Brought Up From Harwick Mine.

Many of Them Will Never Be Identified in All Probability.

CAUSE IS STILL A MYSTERY

Pittsburg, Jan. 28.—The Harwick mine is giving up its victims. The burned and mangled bodies of the men who went to work on Monday morning are being brought up to the surface, and bob sleds which stand in a line are hauled up the snow road to the school house on the hill. Everybody so far brought up is bruised, cut and crushed into shapelessness, and all so far have their hands raised to their faces, indicating that the doomed men foresaw their fate and tried with their last conscious efforts to ward it off. The fact that the legs and arms are broken and disjointed shows that the force of the explosion must have been terrific. It is presumed that the men were hurled against the jagged walls of the mine and crushed at the ends of headings and chambers. Scarcely one of the bodies has any clothing on it and all are more or less burned, some to a crisp.

There will be great difficulty identifying them on this account and about the only means to accomplish identification will be by the small brass weigh checks bearing a number, which each man draws upon going into the mines and of which a record is kept. But as many of the victims are devoid of clothing confusion will result.

Among the bodies was that of a stranger. Who he was or what he was doing in the mine no one seems to know. He may unwittingly have caused the explosion by lighting a match.

H. A. McMillan, who led one party of searchers said:

"Fifteen bodies were found in Butt 1 of the south entry. All of them with the exception of the stranger were badly burned and mangled. One's head was blown off. In room 1 of the south entry we found two men lying face downward near each other. These had evidently been killed by the force of the explosion. In another place we found six men, all negroes, I believe. Five were in a heap and one was pinned under a car. We found the driver of that entry lying along the roadway where he had been blown. Rooms 10 and 12, south entry, are caved to the depth of five feet. There are several men buried there, as there are undoubtedly men buried under rock in other parts of the mine. For this reason it will be weeks before all of the bodies are recovered.

Joe Altman, the Second street merchant, reported to the police that some one in passing his store last night about 5 o'clock, picked up and carried away two pairs of shoes he had on display.

OVER THE STATE

Homeopaths Indite a Hot Letter to the Legislature.

Paroled Convict Dies at Hartford—Damage Suit Forces Jeweler to Assign.

OTHER NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 28.—The homeopaths are out in a letter to the legislature protesting against a bill which it is claimed has been introduced at the instance of Dr. McCormack, of the state board of health, for the purpose of discriminating against the homeopaths and osteopaths. The letter claims that Dr. McCormack is the whole show in the state board of health. The letter among other things says:

"A board which would prejudice a system of medicine of which it had no knowledge is no more fit to examine applicants than a board of five Presbyterians, one Methodist and one Baptist is to examine the orthodoxy of all theological students."

A GOOD DEED.

Newport, Ky., Jan. 28.—Colonel Albert S. Berry, who was appointed circuit judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Newman, has announced he would make all of the appointments promised by Judge Newman and would give half of the salary during his appointive term to Judge Newman's widow.

DIED IN ASYLUM.

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 28.—David Alexander, son of King Alexander, who was sent to the Hopkinsville insane asylum a few weeks ago, died there and his remains arrived here for burial.

His mind had been affected for several years and he was about 40 years old.

PAROLED CONVICT DIES.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 28.—Cicero King, who killed the town marshal of Hartford and was sentenced to Eddyville for eight years, but was paroled later, died of consumption. The murder for which King was convicted was one of the most sensational in the history of Ohio county.

AFTER TRUSTS.

Shelbyville, Ky., Jan. 28.—The grand jury adjourned after returning 51 indictments. The Durham Tobacco company, of Durham, N. C., and the American Tobacco company, of New York, were each indicted on several counts for failure to file a report with the secretary of state.

QUARREL ENDS IN SHOOTING.

Winchester, Ky., Jan. 28.—At a dance at the residence of William Green, in this county, Charles Bentley and John Sharp fell out over some trivial affair, and Sharp shot Bentley through the bowels, inflicting a fatal wound.

GIVEN TEN YEARS.

Pineville, Ky., Jan. 28.—John Hendrickson was convicted and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for killing Deputy Sheriff Stewart at Four Mile, Ky., last November.

LIVERY BILL

IT IS PASSED BY ONE OF THE HOUSES AT FRANKFORT.

Mr. James Glauber, who sent to Frankfort a bill to protect liverymen by enabling them to collect for the amount of time a person who hires a rig uses it, today received a telegram from Representative W. C. Clark, stating that the bill has passed the senate, and so far as known has met with no opposition. It will enable liverymen to prosecute men who attempt to beat them, which they cannot do under the present laws.

Mr. Lee Shanks, of Knoxville, Tenn., the railroad engineer is here on a visit.

ARE NOW BETTER

Freight Conditions Rapidly Improving on the I. C.

Mr. H. C. McCourt in the City on Business—I. C. Wants to Enlarge Tanyard fill.

OTHER RAILROAD NOTES

Mr. H. C. McCourt, assistant general manager of southern lines of the I. C., arrived in the city this morning from Fulton and will remain here a short time on business.

Mr. McCourt has been paying a great deal of attention to Paducah and the Louisville and Memphis divisions freight traffic situations. These two divisions have been overrun with freight trains but through the efforts of the train masters, chief dispatchers and yard masters, the situation has been relieved to a great extent. The Louisville division has been thoroughly straightened out and the officials are working on the south end now.

During the late freeze up the trains have been delayed a great deal. The oil runs cold and it requires more steam to run in cold than warm weather; passengers require more time in loading and unloading from the passenger trains and many other things contribute to the delay. Since the weather moderated, however, the trains have been running better.

The Illinois Central desires to run its spur track into Mechanicsburg over the city's tan yard fill, and will probably ask permission of the council at the next meeting to widen the fill, strengthen it, and build the track on it instead of building a trestle to the side. This will give the city an opportunity to get a good fill there. It is said the present fill never was any account, and is constantly washing away or caving in, while the railroad fills, particularly the one that skirts the river front for many blocks, are strong and durable, and the high water seldom injures them. The cost of widening and strengthening the fill in Mechanicsburg would cost the railroad from $1,000 to $2,000, and the city nothing.

Chief Dispatcher E. F. North is working to clean up the south end of the road and will be here a few days longer.

The local dispatching force is short a man since the departure of Dispatcher L. Neil who was sent to Fulton, and as soon as another man can be procured, Mr. North will return to Louisville.

Since Mr. North's second return to Paducah there has been more talk of making Paducah his permanent headquarters, but this report is again denied by officers.

It seems that Fulton municipal authorities have been bothered by blockaded streets, from bulletins posted in the trainmen quarters of the I. C. here and at Fulton. The bulletins read that the municipal authorities have been complaining to the road of blockades in Fulton streets by trains being switched across the highways and orders have been issued to the trainmen to avoid any delay possible in working over streets and avoid any suits for damage that may be filed.

Fireman E. P. Clunan, who has been firing in trains No. 103 and 104 between Paducah and Fulton, has been taken off his run and sent to Chicago with engine No. 656 which is being sent to Burnside for repairs.

Yesterday afternoon there was a small freight wreck at Boaz station which delayed the fast passenger train No. 10 several hours. Two freight cars were derailed but no one was injured.

This morning the local round house was cleaned of engines for the south end and until night, no motive power was supplied to the south end except for the passenger runs.

Every woman loves to think of the time when a soft little body, all her own, will nestle in her bosom, fully satisfying the yearning which lies in the heart of every good woman. But yet there is a black cloud hovering about the pretty picture in her mind which fills her with terror. The dread of childbirth takes away much of the joy of motherhood. And yet it need not be so. For sometime there has been upon the market, well-known and recommended by physicians, a liniment called which makes childbirth as simple and easy as nature intended it. It is a strengthening, penetrating liniment, which the skin readily absorbs. It gives the muscles elasticity and vigor, prevents sore breasts, morning sickness and the loss of the girlish figure. An intelligent mother in Butler, Pa., says: "When I needed Mother's Friend again, I would obtain a bottle if I had to pay $5 per bottle for it."

ABOUT THE GAME

Baseball Commission Renders Important Decision.

It Will Affect Both the Major and the Minor Leagues.

K. I. T. MEETING SUNDAY

The National Baseball Commission has handed down an important decision, which affects both major and minor leagues and will be of interest to fans in Paducah.

The Cleveland American League club called the attention of the commission to certain legislation enacted by the National Association at its meeting held in St. Louis last fall. It is thought that this legislation was of such a nature as to practically annul one of the most important features of the national agreement, and for that reason requested that a ruling be made by the commission.

It called attention to that part of the section of the national agreement which refers to the disposition of selected players, where the full draft price has not been paid, or where the drafted player is released within a year after his selection by a major league club and contended that certain legislation was in violation of these sections in this, that the selected player would not revert back to the club from which he was drafted.

The legislation of the National Association enacted last fall to which it calls attention, was as follows:

"Section 2. Players drafted by major league clubs may be drafted by Class A clubs upon payment to the secretary for the benefit of the club from which selection was originally made of one-half of the draft price of the class in which such club may be embraced before such player can return to the club from which he was drafted."

The Cleveland club presented still another proposition, as follows:

"Suppose that we had a player drafted from a Class B league whom we decided was not strong enough for us and suppose that we knew some Class A league club which had a player whom we could use to advantage. Now, suppose that, by the payment of a cash bonus, this Class A club should be willing to give us the player we could use for the player we could not use, would it be possible for us to make such a deal under the terms of the action taken by the minor leagues at St. Louis? We fully understand that we could not make such a deal under the terms of the national agreement."

The ruling of the commission is that the Cleveland club clearly has the right to make such a deal, and to do so under the terms of the national agreement. When a major league club has once obtained clear title to a drafted player, he does not revert back to the club from which he was drafted, either under the terms of the national agreement or any other club under the legislation above referred to unless he is given his unconditional release, and this within the time prescribed in Section 9, Article 6, of the agreement, and is not to be considered a "released" player if he can be sold or traded, or used in exchange in any deal with any club of either party to the agreement.

Manager Sam Jackson has received notice that a meeting of the K. I. T. league owners will be held at Clarksville, Tenn., Sunday, but the object is not yet known. Manager Jackson will attend if there is any urgent business.

GREAT INTEREST

Is Taken in This Bill Before Congress.

It Involves Kentucky to the Extent of Over a Million of Dollars.

OTHER STATES INTERESTED

Washington, Jan. 28.—The state of Kentucky is interested to the extent of $1,433,737.39 in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Volstead of Minnesota, to regulate a settlement and provide for a statement of accounts between the United States government and the separate states relative to the disposition of public lands.

The basis upon which the accounts are to be stated is stipulated as 5 per cent. of the value of all lands at the rate of $1.25 per acre. The important feature of the bill as affecting Kentucky is a provision that the deposits made by the national government with 26 states under the act of June 23, 1836, shall be given outright to the states, the secretary of the treasury being authorized to balance accounts with those states and return to them all certificates of deposit and receipts for the same and other obligations on the part of the states to pay the money, thereby cancelling the money and discharging the debt of the states to the federal government.

In addition to Kentucky, Indiana is interested to the extent of $860,234 and Tennessee to the extent of $1,433,737.

In Louisville But the Capitalists Mean Business.

Architect B. B. Davis, of Paducah, Back in Louisville.

Brinton B. Davis, the architect, returned yesterday from New York, where he had been in conference with eastern capitalists who are contemplating the expenditure of over $1,000,000 in Louisville, says yesterday's Courier Journal.

The syndicate of builders which is interested in Louisville as the locality for the enterprise has a proposal from one of the largest department stores in New York for quarters in Louisville. The department store is willing to make a long term lease of suitable property for establishing a branch in this city, and the men who are behind the project believe that Louisville offers sufficient demand to require the space which will be made in addition to that needed by the department store. The proposed building will be twelve stories in height and constructed on the latest plans for skyscrapers. The plans have been drawn by Mr. Davis and were discussed by his principals in the New York conference.

Mr. Davis, who visited Paducah and St. Louis, as well as New York, while out of the city, said yesterday afternoon that he was not at liberty to give the names of the capitalists who were interested in the new building or the department store which has agreed to take the lower floors of the building.

The carpet will cost about $500, and the contract for it will be let shortly. Mr. J. P. Doyle was here to represent the successful bidder on the furniture.

STREETS NAMED

Joint Street Committee Decides on Those to be Paved.

Will Present its Report to the Boards at Their Next Meetings.

ENGINEER TO BEGIN WORK

The joint street committee of the general council held a meeting last evening at the city hall and decided on a report to the boards relative to the streets to be paved in Paducah with the money raised by bond issue. The Sun called attention to the needless delay several days ago and the members of the board have now got a move on themselves.

The committee will recommend the paving of the following streets, which are almost the same recommended by members of the old boards before they went out of office:

First from Washington to Jefferson street; Second, from Washington to Broadway; Third, from Kentucky avenue to Broad street where the latter thoroughfare turns into Island creek bridge; Fourth, from Kentucky avenue to Washington street; Fifth, from Trimble to Norton street; Sixth, from Jefferson to Clark street; Seventh, from Jefferson to Clark; Ninth, from Jefferson street to Kentucky avenue; Kentucky avenue from First to Ninth streets; Broadway from Fifth to Ninth street and Jefferson from First to Ninth street.

As the selections are about the best that can be made, they will probably be accepted by both boards, but the list is of course subject to change.

When the boards pass on the report City Engineer Washington can go to work with his preliminary work, such as surveying for the surface or storm water sewerage under each block to be paved.

It is estimated that the cost of the work will average $5,000 a block, including the cost of the storm water sewerage. As soon as the weather improves Engineer Washington will begin the preliminary work in order to complete it as soon as possible and have everything ready for the work proper in the spring.

The joint street committee in regard to buying iron ore from the furnace company on South Third street declined the offer of 75 cents a yard and decided that the city was willing to pay 50 cents a yard. Mr. Mitchell, the company's representative, said he was not authorized to accept this amount, but would take up the matter with the man in charge of the property.

STEEL MAGNATES SMALL MEN.

Andrew Carnegie is only a few inches above five feet in height. Henry W. Phillips, his old partner, is not an inch taller, and John Walker, the other member of the trio who revolutionized the manufacture of steel, has perhaps a little the better of both Carnegie and Phillips. As for Henry C. Frick, his head would just about reach the shoulder of a man of ordinary height. It is said that one day when these four steel masters were walking together on the streets of Pittsburgh a bootblack called out to his business rival further down the block as the millionaires passed: "Eh, Jimmy, git onto der runs."

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, L. L. D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1.

Like a Diamond in the Sky

In the annals of medicine Kodol is up above the world so high that it is like a diamond in the sky. True merit has elevated this famous remedy to that position wherein it stands preeminently as the world's recognized cure for all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs.

Unlike all other remedies, Kodol combines the natural digestants with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. It does not purge the system. The weak should never be weakened and the sick should never be sicker. Such treatment gives temporary relief often, but permanent good never.

Immediate benefits follow the first dose, and perfect health is the permanent result derived from the use of Kodol.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet.

A LAWYER Five years ago dyspepsia took such a hold on me I could scarcely go. I took quantities of medicines, but nothing helped me. I tried Kodol, and improved at once. I cured me. George S. Marsh, Nocona, Tex.

A BANKER I suffered for four years with indigestion. After having almost despaired of ever getting well, Kodol was recommended to me. I began to improve at once. I am now taking the third bottle and I feel as well as I ever did. Can eat anything without bad effects. Thos. H. Taylor, Como, Miss.

A MERCHANT I suffered heart-burn and stomach trouble, caused by dyspepsia, have had some very bad attacks of same. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble. She lived entirely on warm water. Two bottles of Kodol cured her. As for myself, I am glad to say that a dose of Kodol always gives me instant relief. J. D. Ewings, Allenville, Mich.

A MINISTER For years I suffered from dyspepsia, growing worse and worse, until culminating in a bad case of ulceration of the stomach. Every known means, and many of the best physicians, were consulted. My people sent me to Europe. Each hemorrhage left me weaker and weaker. Finally I was induced to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It relieved me beyond imagination. I am now using my third bottle, am preaching twice every Sunday, and thank God I expect to be well soon. W. P. Loren, Earlville, Ia.

A DOCTOR After three years almost constant use of Kodol in hundreds of cases referable to faulty digestion and assimilation, I can truthfully say it is the most efficient combination for dyspepsia, indigestion, flatulence, nausea and all gastric disorders that it has been my good fortune to discover. My experience in a general and hospital practice dates from 1872, and of all the digestants prescribed in those thirty years, none in my hands have proved so thoroughly effective as Kodol. E. H. Hayes, M. D., Washington, D. C.

TWO GOOD STORIES

Parrot Plays Truant and Disappears in the Cold Air.

A Gold Fish Embedded in Ice returns to Life and Recovers.

There is one precocious but misguid-ed parrot less in Paducah today. This morning a large verdant specimen in some manner got out at the home of Mrs. Emma Rehkopf, at Fifth and Monroe streets, and gracefully rose to the heights of a tall oak tree. Although tired in a tropical climate where the flowers bloom perennially and such a thing as snow is found only on the mountain tops, Polly seemed to enjoy the dizzy heights to which she had flown.

"Come up, come up," she impudently shouted to the family, which had assembled on the porch to persuade her down.

"Polly, come down," they would plead.

"Come up, come up," insisted the bird, to the intense amusement of those who heard it.

Finally, Polly gave a squawk, flew rapidly towards the river its plumage shining in the sun, and doubtless the scenes of past pleasures will see her no more, as she will freeze to death.

Mr. C. L. Van Mater, of 603 Kentucky avenue, tells an interesting fish story, but it is strictly true. A few nights ago the water in the glass jar in which a small gold fish was kept, froze. The fish, probably feeling the water gradually congealing, pushed its way to the surface, and when the family arose in the morning was found apparently lifeless, half out of the frozen water, its head being partly out but the remainder of its body firmly embedded in the ice. It was thawed out and soon showed signs of returning life, and is today as frisky and active as it was before its becoming a part of the miniature ice berg.

CLOSE CALL

STOCK MEN NEARLY FROZEN ON SMALL TOWHEAD IN OHIO.

People from Smithland report that five stock men employed on the C. B. Davis farm near Smithland came near being frozen to death on a small tow-head about a mile below Smithland a day or two ago. They crossed over to look after some stock and transfer it to the mainland out of the way of the rising river, but before they finished their work the ice came down so thick they could not return to shore, and had to spend the night on the island. Their cries of distress could not be heard and they were nearly frozen when rescued the next day, one of them being so badly frost bitten that he had to be carried to the boat.

FAIR EXCHANGE

A NEW BACK FOR AN OLD ONE—HOW IT IS DONE IN PADUCAH.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is an agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Paducah citizen:

R. K. Tilley, of 400 South Third street, tobacco packer with the Alliance & Veal Tobacco Co., on North Third street, says:

"An aching back to a tobacco packer is not only a nuisance but it keeps him in misery. Despite all my efforts to cure mine by using household remedies and trying treatments guaranteed by friends and acquaintances I was unable to check it, let alone cure it until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at DuBois Co.'s drug store on Broadway. The first box gave such satisfaction that I bought a second. To say I endorse Doan's Kidney Pills mildly expresses my opinion of that remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 21.8 on the gauge, a rise of 1.5 in the last 24 hours. Weather clear with southeast winds. Temperature 26. SAUNDERS A. FOWLER. Local Observer.

The Hook is due from Tennessee river.

The Summers is due from Tennessee river.

The Memphis is due from Tennessee river tomorrow.

The Dick Fowler left on time this morning for Cairo.

The Jim Duffey got away yesterday to Tennessee river.

The Clyde got away last night on time for Tennessee river.

The Wilford is in Cumberland river, hemmed in at Smithland by the heavy ice.

The Victor is laying here waiting for the ice to thin out so she can go into Cumberland river.

The Penguin in ready to come out of Cumberland river but will be unable to come down from Smithland until the ice has passed out of the river.

The Sprague, Finley, Cruiser and Harry Brown got away yesterday for Louisville, the Sprague breaking the ice leaving a clear wake for the other boats.

The Charleston arrived last night out of Tennessee river and has gone to Joppla to unload her cargo. She will leave tomorrow or Saturday for Tennessee river on return trip.

The Butteroff did not turn back at Smithland yesterday but came on down and left yesterday afternoon late for Nashville. She came down in the wake of the big Sprague for several miles.

The river men have had a hard time of it this winter and have worked no longer than several weeks at a stretch. The ice in the Mississippi river tied the Tennessee and St. Louis packets up and low water in the Tennessee stopped the Tennessee river packets for a time. The ice and low water in the Ohio has caused the packets to lay up and only the smaller towboats have been furnishing work for the river men.

WILL CONFER

TACTICS OF CHARTER AMENDERS IS NOW CHANGED.

Those members of the legislative boards who want to spend the city's money sending a delegation to Frankfort to try to have the charter amended to suit Paducah, have changed their tactics. It is now hoped to have officials in the other second class cities, Covington, Newport and Lexington, appoint committees to confer with a local committee and decide on charter amendments satisfactory to all combined. It seems the local authorities at last realize that there is no prospect of having anything done unless the other cities in this class want it, if then, and have decided after working for some time on amendments desired by Paducah, to consult the other cities about it. Any time for the conference will suit Paducah, the charter amendment committee at a meeting at the mayor's office yesterday afternoon decided. Should the representatives be able to agree on changes desired, then a delegation from the four cities will be sent to Frankfort.

So far as is known other second class cities are pretty well satisfied with the charter, and desire no changes. Solicitor Puryear was instructed to write the officials in the other second class cities.

BODY NOT FOUND.

IT WILL PROBABLY BE COVERED WITH MUD AND SAND.

There is little hope of finding the body of Jess Tillman, the colored rooster drowned day before yesterday afternoon off the Dick Fowler. On account of the ice it would be practically impossible to find the body should it come to the surface, and on account of the mud in the river and the swift current the body is doubtless by this time covered with mud and sand.

DIES IN HOPKINSVILLE

Hopkinsville, Ky., Jan. 28.—J. M. P'Pool, aged 84 years, died suddenly at his residence in this city. He was a native of Virginia and had lived here seventy years. Two sons, W. A. and J. A. P'Pool, survive him.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR

MANY NOTABLES TO WITNESS MARRIAGE OF PRINCESS ALICE AND PRINCE ALEXANDER.

Windsor, Jan. 28.—The royal castle will soon be the scene of a most brilliant house party for the wedding of Princess Alice of Albany to Prince Alexander of Teck, which takes place on February 10, as invitations have been sent to all the near relatives of the duchess of Albany, as well as many of the foreign relations of the king and queen themselves.

Among these are, besides the queen dowager of the Netherlands, the king and queen of Wurtemberg, prince and princess of Waldeck-Pyrmont, Queen Wilhelmina and the prince-consort, prince and princess of Bentheim, the hereditary prince and princess of Wied, Prince and Princess Frederic Charles of Hesse-Cassel, Prince and Princess Charles of Sweden and the hereditary grand duke and duchess of Luxembourg.

All the members of the English royal family will be present, including the prince and princess of Wales, the duke and duchess of Connaught, the duke and duchess of Fife, Prince and princess Charles of Denmark and several of the royal grandchildren are to be bridesmaids.

Cinematograph pictures will be permitted of the wedding procession as it enters the chapel, but nothing of the kind will be allowed inside. One or two court artists, however, will be perched in the organ chamber for the purpose of making general studies of the scene, and it is probable that the recognized photographers will be admitted to the same coin of vantage.

IMPERFECT DIGESTION.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Theatrical Notes.

A large audience greeted the Howard-Dorset Company at the Kentucky theater last evening and enjoyed "A Fisherman's Daughter." This is one of the best offerings the company has, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd. Every character was well cast, and the company is in every respect equal to many of the high price regular one night stand companies. Mr. Howard and Miss Dorset are great favorites and their company never fails to draw large houses. The weather has somewhat hampered them since they came this time, but the crowds are getting larger every night. Tonight "The Eagles Nest," which was the bill for the first night and could not be given on account of the illness of a member of the cast, will be given this evening, and will be seen by a large crowd. It is a high priced production, as is "The Man From Mexico," also played by the Howards. There is a change of specialties every night, and these alone are worth the price of admission.

Manager J. E. English today booked one of Weber and Fields shows, with fifty-five people, for the 9th and 10th, "Bouffe Cafe."

OLD VIOLIN

THIS ONE DOES NOT DEPEND ON THE DATE INSIDE.

A violin claimed to be 317 years old was last evening shipped to a Cincinnati house by Mr. John Vincent, of North Tenth street. It is not one of those fake violins that have fictitious dates pasted inside of them to fool the unsophisticated, but was brought to this country from France years ago by Mr. Henry Hazotte's father, who inherited it in turn from his father. Its age can be traced by the family to 317 years. If the violin is a good make it will be worth many hundred dollars. It, of course, may not be, in which case even its age would not make it very valuable.

LAX-FOS For the Kidney's, Liver and Stomach.

ROSE WILL RUN

SECRETARY OF STATE OF ILLINOIS WILL BE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

Mr. James A. Rose, of Golconda, Ill., father of Mrs. James P. Smith, of Paducah, has yielded to the importunities of friends and announced himself a candidate for governor of Illinois. Mr. Rose is one of the most prominent Republicans in Illinois and is now secretary of state at Springfield. While here a few weeks ago Mr. Rose had not made up his mind, and declined to make any statement about his reported candidacy, but yesterday he telegraphed his son-in-law, Mr. James P. Smith, that he had decided to run.

LOSES ANOTHER CHILD.

Hallie, one-year-old son of Conductor W. J. Lewis, of the N. C. & St. L., died last night from spinal meningitis, resulting from measles, at the home of Conductor Frank Hogwood, on South Fourth street. This is the second child Mr. Lewis has lost within a few days. Sue, his little girl, dying last week. The funeral will take place at 10 tomorrow morning, burial at Oak Grove.

HEAVY ICE.

RIVER MEN DO NOT EXPECT RELIEF FOR TEN DAYS, IF THEN.

The ice continues to flow heavy in the Ohio although not so heavy as yesterday and river men do not look for relief for about ten days.

"The ice may flow out within the next ten days," said one river man this morning, and navigation will again be open in the Ohio, unless cold weather forms more ice. The river is reported full of ice from Pittsburgh to Cairo and at the rate it is flowing and with the moderating weather, we think it will melt and pass out within that time."

River men differ, some thinking the ice will disappear by Saturday. River men are not thinking of starting out their boats sooner than next Thursday, if then.

MISSIONARY AFTERNOON.

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Luther B. Hicks on Madison street. The subject is "The World." All members are requested to be present.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"Much of the best work in the world is done unconsciously."

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight with snow Friday.

A Texas congressman traveled 3,000 miles to pay $1.75 poll taxes. But he had to do it to hold his job, which probably accounts for it. When there is a job at the end of the string, modern Democratic politicians will travel most any distance.

Tomorrow is McKinley Day, and it will be appropriately observed in many places, especially in the east. In hundreds of cities services will be held in honor of the martyred president, many of them to be very elaborate. Many of them will be under the auspices of the Carnation society.

The Sultan of Morocco is a busy man. He has given the world's fair commissioner $50,000 but says he doesn't care what he does with it, just so he stops the letters asking for money for an exhibit. He does not even know where St. Louis is, he declares. He has probably never heard of boodling.

The committees from the general assembly appointed to go through the state asylums have reported that they are all in good condition. But what were they expected to report? And what would have been done to them had they reported anything else? It is probable the asylums are about the same they have always been—mighty good places for the politicians who want soft snaps for themselves and friends.

We are glad to notice that the street committee is at last awake and has actually taken steps to enable some work to be done on the paved street matter. It might as well have been done some time ago, but it is better late than never. What now remains to be done is to issue the bonds, advertise for bids, and let the contract to some one who knows something about paving streets and can do the whole job within the time it should be done. It can all be done before next winter, even if actual work is not begun until late in the spring.

When the police in cities have to call into service clairvoyants and other such fakirs, they are getting into hard lines, and no confidence should be placed in them. It is getting so, especially in the larger cities, that the people have to depend on the newspapers to get reliable information on many subjects. The reason is that of ten, if not nearly always, men of inferior ability are placed in the police department and expected to do work that requires real intelligence and shrewdness. The Indiana police who are working on clues furnished by a Louisville clairvoyant ought to "go way back and sit down."

It is hoped that the local legislative boards will not be so foolish as to spend the people's money sending a delegation to Frankfort or anywhere else, to take up the charter amendment question. It is admitted that the gentlemen would be glad to get the trip at the expense of the city, but if they will only stop to think, they will doubtless admit that there is practically no prospect of agreeing on anything, as the three other second class cities are not anxious for any amendments to their charter, and until they become so it is practically impossible to make any to it. If Lexington, Covington and Newport wanted any amendments, they would have had men on the scene long ago. As they don't, it will be impossible for a late comer like Paducah to try to dictate to them, or even persuade them. Taking everything into consideration, especially the fact that all this, if done at all, should have been done weeks ago, there is no excuse for wasting any more time or any of the people's money fooling with these amendments, unless the excuse that some of the city legislators want a free trip will suffice.

THE GRANDFATHER CLAUSE.

Louisville Post.

The future of the south depends chiefly on enlightened, educated, southern opinions. The difficulties, industrial and political, due to the presence of the negro, cannot be solved at once, and they cannot be solved at all save in accord with the principles of justice.

The whites and the blacks must work together in harmony for the progress of all the people.

In this work of readjustment of the races mistakes have been committed and mistakes no doubt will be committed in the future; what we must all do is to be patient, tolerant and just.

The states of the south, in the broader field, need the assistance of Kentucky now as they needed the assistance of Kentucky in 1865 and on until 1885, when Grover Cleveland was elected president, and the southern states were restored to their old time rights and privileges.

There is in Kentucky no danger of negro supremacy, and there is no fear of it anywhere. The proportion of the negro vote to the white is so small that it cannot be considered a menace to any just cause, the census of 1900 placing it less than 14, or, to be exact at 13.7.

Yet it is proposed by a constitutional amendment for Kentucky to adopt the grandfather clause, and in the face of the federal constitution to disfranchise the negro.

The grandfather clause is a southern invention which is not needed in Kentucky. Whether or not it is needed in the south is for the south to say. It has yet to be passed on by the federal supreme court, and it is not probable it will be sustained by that tribunal. It is so manifestly a subterfuge that even in the south it is considered more of a temporary device than a permanent remedy, and to it some states have added a requirement of a tax receipt, which the negro rarely presents.

A few years ago we revised the Kentucky constitution chiefly to wipe out the word slavery, for the thing itself had been dead for a quarter of a century. Now we would take a backward step and write into the constitution a grandfather clause, making the ballot an inherited privilege for white men who cannot read and write.

Let us not adopt this subterfuge. Let us declare openly that we intend to establish in Kentucky an educational qualification and take the consequences whatever they are.

That is usually Kentucky's way, and in this matter that is the best way. It may exclude from the franchise some white men fit to vote, but all restrictions do that, even the age restriction, and it is made for the good of society.

An educational qualification would do credit to the state; it would aid the cause of education; it would exclude the illiterates.

The illiterate population of Kentucky ten years and over is 16.5. In 1890 it was 21.6. In 1880 it was 29.9. But the proportion of illiterates of the white population is only 13.9, while that of the black is 40.

Taking this proportion and applying it to the voters, a plain educational qualification would disfranchise 14 white voters out of a hundred, whereas it would disfranchise 40 blacks out of a hundred.

The "grandfather clause" then is to be inserted to protect these 14 white men. The game is surely not worth the candle. We make in Kentucky the "grandfather clause" absurd. We place ourselves below the black-ridden states of the south. We proclaim to the world that Kentucky stoops to injustice to avoid black domination. We turn back the coming laborer and the coming capital, for both fear the black belt.

On the contrary, if we adopt the educational qualification we put ourselves at the head of the progressive states, elevating the suffrage and educating our citizenship.

Between these two courses Kentucky should not hesitate.

NO CHANGE.

RUSSIA IS AT WORK ON REPLY TO JAPAN.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 28.—The exchanges regarding the Russian response to the Japanese note are still progressing and the foreign office announces that there is no change in the situation.

The Japanese legation does not credit the report from Tokio that Japan has requested Russia to hasten her reply. M. Kurino, the Japanese minister, has received no instructions on the subject. On the contrary, he apparently realizes that the delay is consequent upon exchanges between St. Petersburg, Viceroy Alexieff and Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister at Tokio. M. Kurino reiterates his opinion that Japan will not press Russia for a reply.

RUN DOWN AT LAST

FEMALE WHO CUT A WOMAN ON THE DICK FOWLER CAUGHT.

Lizzie Evans, colored, who cut Laura Smith, colored, on the Dick Fowler last summer, has finally been caught and lodged in jail at Metropolis. The stabbing occurred near Metropolis and the woman had since been at large.

Deputy sheriff Lytton, of Metropolis learned Sunday that the woman was in Marion, Ill., and went after her, bringing her back to Metropolis for trial.

SONGS OF THE DAY.

GIFTS.

Labor and Rest,
These are the best
Blessings that Heaven gives;
And happy he
Who makes them be
His gladness while he lives.

With every day
To wake and say:
Thank God for work and light!
And when at last
The day is past:
Thank God for rest and night!

This is to find
Sweet peace of mind;
To know life's precious worth;
God's gifts to take,
And with them make
A paradise of earth!

CIRCUIT COURT

DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST THE I. C. ON TRIAL.

The case of John G. Miller, administrator of Jennie Smith, who was killed in the Dawson I. C. picnic accident, against the I. C. was on trial at press time. The plaintiff asks for $30,000 damages and there are many witnesses to be examined. These cases were once appealed to the federal court and later sent back to the circuit court.

The case is an interesting one and will require all today and a portion of tomorrow to finish the evidence.

The suit of T. H. Smith against Tony Isaman for $5,000 damages for an alleged slander, was decided in favor of the defendant late yesterday afternoon.

The case of J. E. Mitchell & Co. against G. C. Wallace and others, was by agreement continued.

A bill of evidence was filed in the murder case against Charles Gordon. The bill was filed for the purpose of an appeal.

Attorney W. Bradshaw, Jr., returned from Memphis this morning after a business trip to that city.

COLUMBIA

ARCHBISHOP DENIES.

THAT A CRISIS IS PENDING IN THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

New York, Jan. 28.—That a crisis is pending in the Catholic University, and that the present faculty is to be succeeded by the teaching orders of the church, including the Jesuits and the Dominicans, Archbishop Earley denied in a statement in which he said:

"No crisis has come in the affairs of the Catholic University at Washington. The prospects of the Catholic University were never brighter than at present. The collection that has just been taken up in the churches throughout the country has been very successful. From the best informed sources I am of the belief that this collection for the university will not fall short of a hundred thousand dollars. This collection will be taken up every year for ten years."

WAS RELEASED

MAYOR CARTER HARRISON TURNED LOOSE BY MAGISTRATE.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Mayor Harrison took out a writ of habeas corpus for his immediate release from the corner's jury charge holding him to the grand jury as one of the culprits responsible for the wholesale loss of life at the Iroquois theater fire.

Mayor Harrison formally surrendered himself to Sheriff Barrett, and thus nullified the bond of $5,000 given in court to secure the mayor's freedom from literal custody. Notice was simultaneously served on the state's attorney that an application for a writ of habeas corpus would at once be filed with Judge Tuthill. He was ordered released, the judge holding he could not be held responsible.

DR. FED HIMSELF.

FOUND THE FOOD THAT SAVED HIS LIFE.

A good old family physician with a life time experience in saving people finally found himself sick unto death.

Medicines failed and—but let him tell his own story: "For the first time in my life of 61 years I am impelled to publicly testify to the value of a largely advertised article and I certainly would not pen these lines except that, what seems to me a direct act of Providence, saved my life and I am impressed that it is a bounden duty to make it known.

"For three years I kept failing with stomach and liver disorders until I was reduced 70 lbs. from my normal weight. When I got too low to treat myself, three of my associate physicians advised me to 'put my house in order' for I would be quickly going the way of all mankind. Just about that time I was put on a diet of Grape Nuts predigested food. Curiously enough it quickly began to build me up, appetite returned and in 15 days I gained 6 lbs. That started my return to health and really saved my life.

"A physician is naturally prejudiced against writing such a letter but in this case I am willing to declare it from the house tops that the multiplied thousands who are now suffering as I did can find relief and health as easily and promptly by Grape Nuts. If they only knew what to do. Sincerely and Fraternal yours." Name of this prominent physician furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

INDIANS GATHER.

SQUAD OF POLICE SENT TO GREENLEAF MOUNTAIN.

Gibson, I. T., Jan. 28.—John West, captain of Indian police, with a squad of ten picked men, passed through on his way to Green Leaf Mountain, where the Keetoowahs are concentrating.

Parties on the train from Baggs report a big bunch of Indians there. There is a party of seven hunters from this place in the Green Leaf mountains last heard from in the section that is now surrounded by the Indians. It has been impossible to hear from them and their friends are becoming uneasy. So far no murders have been reported, but the Indians state they are gathering to clean out the half breeds, whom they claim have been aiding the government in the allotment of lands. If Captain West does not locate the party of hunters by morning a posse of men will be sent out to reinforce him.

THE SICK.

There is no change today in the condition of Capt. John Segenfelder, who is hovering between life and death.

The two sons, Master Cave and Charles of Mr. William Flowers, of the local I. C., are ill of measles.

Mr. W. Y. Griffith continues to slowly improve from the recent accident in which he was injured.

Miss Myrtle Hawkins is ill at her home on West Clay streets.

Officer John Hessian is on the sick list.

ABOUT THE HALL

Few Cases in Police Court—Murder Case Continued.

Counterfeiter Leader Expected—Boy Apprentices Were Released.

OTHER CITY POLICE NOTES

Police Judge D. L. Sanders had but little business before him this morning. The murder case against Sallie Holmes, colored, charged with killing Mary Duke, the nine year old colored girl shot last week, was continued on account of the illness of her attorney. The girl's mother has not yet been warranted. The Holmes woman, who confessed, insists that the shooting was an accident.

No warrant will probably be issued against Rachel Johnson, mother of the colored girl killed last week. It seems the officers are becoming inclined to the belief that the shooting was accidental, as they have been able to find no motive. The insurance on the child's life was at first considered as a probable motive, but the fact that it hadn't been paid up at the time of the shooting convinces the officers that the shooting wasn't for the insurance money. About all they know of the shooting is the Holmes' woman's confession that she did the shooting accidentally while fooling with a pistol, and was afraid at first to tell it.

Government officers are expected in at any time with the man alleged to have made the $20 counterfeit bills with which McCracken, Marshall, Graves and Calloway counties have been plastered. It is said they know the photographer who manufactured them and that he will be caught. An attorney for the prisoners said today that probably all arrested would acknowledge they passed the bills but that they did it in good faith.

Chief of police James Collins and other officers have been investigating the matter of several apprentice boys quitting work at the Rehkopf shops, thinking they were enticed away from their work by the striking union men. The developments failed to show this, and no warrants were issued, the boys, swearing they quit because they were tired of work.

Mary Clark, the small negro girl who broke into Mr. Lagerwall's residence Saturday and stole a gold watch and other trinkets, skipped out to Mayfield and was later captured and returned to Paducah, was held over this morning for house breaking and will be sent to the reform school if room can be found there for her.

The requisition papers for William Lightfoot, the negro charged with killing Roy Sloan, a white I. C. flagman, are expected tomorrow, and if they come officers at Woodstock, Tenn., will be notified and Lightfoot will be taken to Memphis for trial.

Mrs. Nellie Martens and Henry Wright, who were yesterday fined $50 and costs for immorality in police court, still say they will not pay their fine but will serve their term out in the city prison.

Jim Taylor, white, was arraigned for striking Ackerman, the second hand man, and the case continued, Taylor wanting witnesses who had not been summoned.

Mr. O. W. Levan, of No. 903 South Third street, reports that his bay horse has been missing for several days. He thinks the animal was stolen.

Will Vinegar, colored, wanted for a breach of the peace, got a continuance. His brother was arrested through mistake.

The old malicious shooting case against Frank Jones, colored, was continued on account of the illness of his attorney.

Miss Maude Leffingwell, of the Cumberland Telephone long distance exchange, who has been ill for three days, is no better, her friends will regret to learn.

WHITTAKER WRIGHT TOOK CYANIDE OF POTASSIUM.

London, Jan. 28.—A post mortem examination has shown that Whittaker Wright committed suicide by taking cyanide of potassium.

The investigation made indicates that Wright must have swallowed the poison while standing before Justice Bigham after receiving his sentence. It is recalled that Wright pulled a handkerchief from his pocket and appeared to wipe his face, and it is surmised that under cover of this he took the fatal dose.

VALUED CUFF

IT WAS GOOD FOR A BOX, BUT CAUSED THE OWNER MUCH ANNOYANCE.

"I shall never forget one particularly uncomfortable night for me," said a popular traveling man, as he stood in the Torunda of the Palmer House last night, and looked admiringly at a very artistic lithograph of Tim Murphy, a combination of silver and gray, with a lone Remington cowboy standing in the shadow of a tall tree, looking out over a broad expanse of moonlit water.

"That's a fine piece of work," continued he. "You know Tim is an artist in everything he does. I am told he designs all this sort of work himself and he certainly always has something creditable and artistic in the line of printing."

"But," queried the writer, "how about that uncomfortable night?"

"Oh, that was in the long ago. You see, Charley Hoyt, Frank McKee, Bert Dasher, Murphy and myself were sitting in a down town restaurant late one night. One of Hoyt's attractions was playing and literally turning people away. We had met accidentally. Hoyt, in the very best of jolly good humors, was telling one good story after another until the conversation led up to the enormous business of the show. Hoyt turned to me and asked: 'Have you seen the play?' I answered that I had not, whereupon, he insisted upon my seeing it the following night and called for a slip of paper upon which to write an order for a box. There was some delay about the paper, and as Hoyt sat there tapping the table impatiently with a stylographic pen, Murphy reached across the table, saying, 'Here, Charley, let me write it.' Taking the pen from Hoyt's hand, Murphy said to me: 'Pull up your coat sleeve and I will write it upon your cuff.' He then deftly sketched an outline of one of the present boxes with a man and a woman seated therein, close together, hands clasped, like a rural love-sick twain. Under the sketch, Murphy wrote: 'Good for box party when presented.' Beneath this, Hoyt signed his name. As the party were dispersing, Hoyt said to me: 'Wear that cuff tomorrow night,' and I laughingly agreed.

When I got into my dress suit the next evening, my wife called my attention to the cuff and advised me to wear it. After a little hesitation, I slipped it on. Reaching the theater, we met Hoyt in the lobby, who said: 'I left a box in the office for you; just ask for it.'

Walking over to the ticket window I asked for the box coupons. 'Coupons are here all right, but where's your pass?' asked the ticket seller. With a smile, I pulled up my coat sleeve, showing him the cuff. He reached over quickly and, to my astonishment, punched half a dozen holes in the cuff, with what looked to me like a shoemaker's punch. (He handed me the coupons and laughingly said: 'Pass along.')

I joined in the laugh, as it was on me, and proceeded to the door. Here, I was met by Frank McKee whose genial smile should have warned me of further danger. I forged ahead, however, and right in the centre of a rush at the doors, was stopped by McKee, who asked to see my pass. Up went the coat sleeve, and I held my arm high in the air as McKee examined the cuff. After holding me in this very embarrassing position as long as he dared, McKee said: 'The pass is all right, but you'll have to leave it here,' and he simply held me up with my hands in the air while he unbuttoned the cuff, took it off my wrist and thrust it into one of the ticket boxes. I was then permitted to enter the theater, but during the entire performance, Tim Murphy's side remarks about gentlemen who were out in dress suits without cuffs, were, to say the least, embarrassing, and it was some moments before we reconciled ourselves to the Murphy-Hoyt joke. After the performance, I asked Hoyt to return my cuff, but he refused emphatically. Some years later the management of the theater presented me with that cuff. It is now nicely framed and hangs on the wall at home—one of our most valued theatrical souvenirs."

FORCED TO ASSIGN.

Flemingsburg, Ky., Jan. 28—Daniel T. Fischer, a jeweler of this place, filed a deed of assignment. His liabilities are placed at about $10,000, and assets a like sum. A judgment for $2,000 damages was rendered against him last week in the circuit court for shooting and wounding Riley Ham, a Vanceburg barber.

ABOUT CHARACTER

PROF. WILSON DECLARES PROBLEMS YET CONFRONT US SUCH AS ANARCHY, SOCIALISM, ETC.

New York, Jan. 28—President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton university, speaking on "Americanism" before the Outlook club of New Jersey, discussed the national character. "It is hard to analyze the national character," said he, "for when we conceive of the American we think of terms suitable to that part of the country in which we ourselves live. We are to be congratulated on our national sentiment, for we have very little sectionalism. In spite of this we do not try to be conventional, and that is what makes us what we are. Nobody but Americans can understand what American character is, and yet can we really understand it ourselves?"

"It took us one century to settle and colonize this country, the next century was spent in getting rid of the Dutch and French, the third in establishing the nation and settling the difficulties between the north and the south, and we now have things on a national basis which does not seem at present to be threatened by any catastrophe. It is true that we have anarchy and socialism to deal with, but this is no evil peculiar to us, for all nations have to deal with them. We are still in the flush of manhood and we have a future ahead of us."

"We have entered the fourth century of our existence with a big question mark staring us in the face. We pride ourselves on our political liberty, but if what we call political liberty is found in the cities it is a peculiar liberty. We have now arrived at a time when we must correct the evils that have arisen in our governments and there are many of them, even if only in our city governments. It is doubtful if the makers of the constitution would recognize it if they were to see it now, for it certainly has been stretched. We can not say that the stretching has been harmful, for it is better that it be stretched than that it should break."

"We should keep high ideals, whether new or old; if we don't we will decline. We ought not to put men at the head of the nation's affairs whose honor can in any way be questioned."

NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS.

FIVE TRIPS TO THE WORLD'S FAIR FREE

To Be Given By the Sun

The Sun has inaugurated the greatest contest ever given in Paducah.

It proposes to send five people to the World's Fair at St. Louis next summer, free of expense to themselves.

Who shall have these trips will be left to The Sun's readers, and the selections will be made by votes cast with ballots to be printed in The Sun each day.

HERE IS THE PLAN:

The most popular federal, city or county employee, among whom are the postmen, policemen, firemen.

The most popular school teacher, lady or gentleman.

The most popular clerk in a wholesale or retail establishment, lady or gentleman.

The most popular member of a local union.

The most popular resident, lady or gentleman, in McCracken county, outside of Paducah.

Will be furnished transportation from Paducah to St. Louis and return and given $50 for expense money for a week's visit to the World's Fair.

THE CONTEST ENDS APRIL 30.

A study of the schedule of votes below will show you the value of advance subscriptions. Subscriptions paid in January will entitle the subscriber to just four times the number of votes the same subscription will be entitled to in April, the last month of the contest. Subscriptions paid in February, three times, in March two times.

Subscriptions for three months will entitle the subscribers for more than three times one month, six months for a good deal more than six times, and twelve months for much more than twelve times. Thus will be seen the great inducement offered subscriptions for three, six and twelve months, and for payments in the first month and so on.

"Ha!" exclaimed the doctor, who had accompanied the count and his companion to the carriage. "No. 2?"

"Yes," laughed the count, as he leaned back against the soft cushions, "it promises to be a busy day at the Oaks! Really," as the equipage rolled on, "New Orleans is fast becoming a civilized center."

CHAPTER XXI.

THE land baron's injuries did not long keep him indoors, for it was his pride rather than his body that had received deep and bitter wounds. He chafed and fumed when he thought how in all likelihood the details of his defeat could not be suppressed in the clubs and cafes.

"I played him too freely," he groaned to the Count de Propriac as the latter sat contemplatively nursing the ivory handle of his cane and offering the land baron such poor solace as his company afforded. "I misjudged the attack, besides exposing myself too much. If I could only meet him again!"

"It would be the same," retorted the count brutally. "When you lost your temper, you lost your cause. Your work was brilliant, but he is one of the best swordsmen I ever saw. Who is he, anyway?"

"All I know is, he served in Algiers," said Mauville moodily.

"An adventurer, probably?" exclaimed the other.

"I'd give a good deal to know his record," remarked the patron contemptuously. "You should be pretty well acquainted with the personnel of the army?"

"It includes everybody nowadays," replied the diplomat. "But it seems to me I did know of a Saint-Prosper at the military college at Saumur; or was it at the Ecole d'application d'etat-major? Demmed scapgrace, if I am not mistaken; sent to Algiers; must be the same."

Here the count closed his eyes and seemed almost on the point of dropping off, but suddenly straightened himself, drew a perfunctory farewell and departed in a brown study.

The count's company, of which he had enjoyed a good deal during the past forty-eight hours, did not improve Mauville's temper, and he bore his own reflections so grudgingly that inaction became intolerable. Besides, certain words of his caller concerning Saint-Prosper had stimulated his curiosity, and, in casting about for a way to confirm his suspicions, he had suddenly determined in what wise to proceed. Accordingly, the next day he left his rooms, his first visit being to a spacious, substantial residence of stone and lime with green veranda railings and windows that opened as doors, with a profusion of gauzy curtains hanging behind them. This house, the present home of the Marquis de Ligne, stood in the French quarter, contrasting architecturally with the newer brick buildings erected for the American population. The land baron was ushered into a large reception room, sending his card to the marquis by the neat appearing colored maid who answered the door.

Soon the marquis' servant, a stolid, sober man of virtuous deportment, came downstairs to inform the land baron his master had suffered a relapse and was unable to see any one.

"Last night his temperature was very high," said the valet. "My master is very ill, more so than I have known him to be in twenty years."

"You have served the marquis so long?" said the visitor, pausing as he was leaving the room. "Do you remember the Saint-Prosper family?"

"Well, monsieur, General Saint-Prosper and my master were distant kinsmen and had adjoining lands."

"Surely the marquis did not pass his time in the country?" observed Mauville.

FOOTPADS ASSAULT

JUDGE TARVIN, OF COVINGTON IN NEW YORK CITY.

Washington, Jan. 28—James P. Tarvin, formerly circuit judge of Kenton county, came near meeting death in New York several nights ago, and while here preparing to sail for Panama, told of his escape. The Kentuckian was set upon by two footpads, was knocked senseless and was robbed of all the money he had in his pockets, which the judge said was a considerable amount.

A blinding snowstorm had come up and the judge was walking along with his eyes cast down to protect them from the snow. Suddenly he was struck over the head with a slung shot and knocked to the gutter in an unconscious condition. He quickly revived, however, but made up his mind that the best policy was to pretend that he was dead.

When he inadvertently showed signs of life he was choked by one of the men while the other searched his pockets, and removed all the money he had.

The judge had left a handsome gold watch presented to him by the Kenton County Bar association in his trunk at his hotel, and he says he prized that more highly than all the money the footpads got. Judge Tarvin's throat, while he was in Washington, bore the marks of the footpad's fingers. He regretted the loss of his money, but said he congratulated himself that he escaped as well as he did.

MAN APPOINTED

POSTMASTER TO SUCCEED MINNIE COX AT INDIANOLA.

Washington, Jan. 28—The president has appointed W. B. Martin to succeed Mrs. Minnie Cox as postmaster at Indianola, Miss. This postoffice was closed some time ago, the white inhabitants of the place refusing to accept their mail from Mrs. Cox, who is a negress. Martin, who is a white man, was one of Mrs. Cox's bondsmen.

NEW FILTER

CONTRACT HAS BEEN LET BY THE WATER COMPANY.

The contract for the filtration outfit has been let by Superintendent Muscoe Burnett, of the Paducah Water company, to the Continental Jewell Filter company, of New York, and is an immense thing. The cost of transporting the 420 tons of sand alone that has to be of especial quality and to be shipped here from New Jersey, will be within a few dollars of $2,000, while the other machinery will cost many thousand dollars and the freight bill for its transportation will be immense.

The work of installing the filtration plant proper, on account of the time required to get it here, will not begin for some little time yet. Work is progressing satisfactorily at the plant.

The filter purchased is the finest and costliest on the market.

FATAL TO BIRDS.

GREAT MORTALITY HAS CAUSED AUDUBON SOCIETIES TO ISSUE AN APPEAL.

New York, Jan. 28—The severe weather prevailing over a greater part of the country and the general heavy snowfall have caused great mortality among birds. In fact, the destruction of bird life has been so great that the national committee of the Audubon societies has been led to make an effort to prevent it and has issued an appeal to the public, especially children, to care for the birds during the present excessively inclement weather. The appeal points out that birds suffer very little in the cold weather, provided they can secure food enough to maintain their normal temperature, but that sleet storms and heavy falls of snow now cover all natural bird food, and that some help is needed to prevent an excessive bird mortality. The committee suggests that bones with scraps of meat and pieces of suet be hung in orchards or door yards and that broken nuts and corn, small grain, chaff and waste from the barn floor be scattered in places where it can easily be found by the birds.

Mr. I. N. Poole, proprietor of one of the best barber shops in Muncie, Ind., has words of praise for Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure. He writes Dr. Fenner:

"I have taken several bottles of your Kidney and Backache Cure, have used many other kinds of so-called kidney cures, but none are to be compared with Dr. M. M. Fenner's, as all others have failed and Dr. Fenner's has completed a cure. I had been troubled with kidney disease for many months; some doctors thought I had Bright's Disease as I had all the symptoms, but I took your advice and now I am a well man. You may send all who doubt to me and I will convince them that Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure is a genuine healing and curative remedy."

Better than the Pacific

You can bathe in California at any time of year and at almost any point on the Coast. But the strong probability is you won't. There are other things to do that are better worth doing and, besides, there are better places to bathe in than the cool waters of the Pacific. All along the coast—at San Diego, Coronado, Santa Barbara, Monterey and a dozen other places that might be named, luxurious bath houses have been built, where the water, fresh from the sea, is heated and tempered to your liking.

If you are figuring on passing the winter in California, you owe it to yourself to ascertain what the Rock Island System offers in the way of rates and through car service. Information on request.

HEAVY VOTING

Tremendous Number of Votes Rolling in for the Contests

Only Three More Days in Which to Get January Subscriptions.

A NEW RULING IN CONTESTS

The number of votes polled in The Sun's great world's fair contests today again run way up into the thousands and evidences the great interest being taken in the contests.

From near and afar the votes are coming in and the contestants and their friends are working in earnest.

January is nearly gone and the value of advance subscriptions depreciates a little. An advance subscription in January for one month, for example, entitles the subscriber to 160 votes and in April to only 40. The same subscription in February to 120 votes.

A year's subscription in January entitles the subscriber to 2,200 and the same subscription in February to 1650. Therefore if you are contemplating subscribing to get the votes send in your subscription this month and get the larger certificate.

In the beginning of the contest The Sun was importuned by some of the candidates to drop their names from the contests and the question was asked if they could give their votes to some one else in the same contests. This was permitted but will not be hereafter. When the candidates withdrawing had but a few votes it was all right to throw their votes to a friend but as the totals have assumed big figures now the unjustness of permitting it, especially for a candidate with a large number of votes to throw his or hers to another candidate, is palpable. Therefore, withdrawing candidates can not throw their votes to another entry hereafter.

DIED OF APOPLEXY

This Was Cause of Mrs. Dounoy's Death.

Remains to be Shipped To Louisville Tonight.

Coroner William Peal today held an investigation of the death of the late Mrs. Hannah Dounoy, on South Second street, and decided that death was caused by apoplexy and did not hold a formal inquest over the remains, turning the body over to Undertaker Efinger, who embalmed the body and will ship it to Louisville.

Mrs. Dounoy, the deceased, was born, raised and married in New Orleans. Her parents were of direct French descent.

The deceased had been living alone except at nights, when a colored woman looked after her. The last time Mrs. Dounoy was seen alive was Tuesday afternoon about 3 o'clock when she was seen standing at the front gate by neighbors. A colored woman, Minnie Johnson, who lives in the rear of the house, went in to pay her rent yesterday morning and found her dead on the floor.

An examination showed that she had been sitting in a chair by the fire when stricken and toppled over on her face.

The daughter Louise Dounoy is the only known near relative, although the deceased has a sister in a convent in New Orleans. Nothing has been heard from her and it is supposed she is dead. Mrs. Dounoy carried insurance to the amount of several hundred dollars and owned several pieces of property about the city.

Tonight the body will be shipped to Louisville and buried by the side of her deceased sister in the Catholic cemetery.

The deceased was a well known resident of the city, having lived here for years. She was a widow of Tom Dounoy who died here twelve years ago and had lived on Second street for many years.

It was supposed she had considerable money hid about the house, but the keys were hidden and Coroner Peal could not unlock anything. It is also said that the deceased had a niece and perhaps other relatives in Louisville, but this is not known for certain.

Louise Dounoy, the daughter of the deceased, had been in St. Louis for some time, and arrived home today. The remains will be shipped to Louisville tonight for burial.
